CLASS NOTES

Joseph Kruse '44: Still alive and kicking.

Ed Bosley '47: I graduated from Gesu with a load of memories I still cherish to this day.

Walter Kelly '51: Keep up the good work!

Hon. John E. Fitzgerald '53: Congratulations on the 90th anniversary. I am very grateful for the education I received at Gesu. I retired from the bench in 2012, and now enjoy playing golf, fishing and relaxing in northern Michigan with my wife, Mary and our dog Sara.

Richard Cunningham '57: I want to thank the IHM Sisters for a great education and a more open view of the world outside of Catholics. I am retired after teaching high school for 43 years. I have lived in Monroe since 1976 and been married to Brenda since 1986. Mixed marriage: Catholic and Baptist!

Janet McCarthy '58: My husband Joseph (U of D Jesuit) and I have been married for 47 years and have four children married and eight grandchildren. I am glad to hear Gesu is thriving!

Catherine Longe Quaine '63: I was a student from 1st through 8th grade. They were wonderful years. I am going to stop by one of these days and walk the halls again. Thank you for preserving the values of an excellent education.

Help the Gesu School Angel Fund

You can change the life of a student through a gift to the Gesu Catholic School Angel Fund. This sponsorship program provides scholarship assistance to Gesu families who are unable to cover the full $4,300 in tuition and fees. Gifts are restricted, and will be used to benefit your sponsored student and all of Gesu’s children. Since starting this program in April, we have raised more than $100,000 towards tuition assistance. Help us keep this fantastic program going.

Nigel Fullick '66: I hope to visit Detroit and Gesu for the first time since Uncle Sam called in 1972. Mom and dad moved to Ft. Lauderdale while I was in the army and let me visit when I was discharged in 1975 – still here! I still hit the slopes in Colorado. (Thank you Gary Gallagher.)

Rob Bacon '80: One of my fondest memories of is playing guitar in Ms. McGill’s production of “Godspell.” I have gone on to become a professional musician, performing and recording with such artists as Mariah Carey, Brian McKnight, John Legend, George Duke, Stanley Clarke, Raphael Saadiq, Boney James. I’m currently guitarist with Chaka Khan. It all began for me at Gesu!

Carolyn Howard '80: I’m married with four children, and a business owner in Detroit. Many thanks for the wonderful education I received at Gesu.

Meagan Pitts '94: I thoroughly enjoyed my time at Gesu. I would love to see the school preserve its history and continue providing excellent education for many years to come.

Marie and Bob Handley: We continue to be grateful for the education our four children received at Gesu School. We are grateful that Gesu School continues to offer a very good education. It is a remarkable, lifelong gift to students and their families.

Sue Delonis: With admiration for all Gesu is, does and represents.

Gesu held a reunion weekend in August and a gala in October to celebrate its 90th anniversary. If you’d like to organize a class reunion, you are welcome to use Gesu facilities for the event. Please contact us with your ideas and plans. We’ll help you make it happen. Don’t wait until Gesu’s 100th year to reunite with your classmates!

Gesu 90th Anniversary Gala

During after-dinner ceremonies, the school honored the Sisters, Servants of the Immaculate Heart of Mary as founders of Gesu School by presenting them with a Gesu Giant Award. Mary Jane Herb—one of 10 IHM sisters in attendance, accepted the award on behalf of the order.

The Gesu Giant Award is given to those who exemplify the Jesuit motto of “Men and women for others” in all they do for the country, city and community. Also honored:

- John Dingell (‘40), the longest serving member of Congress over 59 years of service to his constituents and to the country.

Get Your Own Gesu Pewabic Commemorative Tile

Gesu Catholic School commissioned a commemorative tile from the world renowned Pewabic ceramics studio to celebrate the School's 90 years and its exciting future of educating Detroit's leaders.

Pewabic was founded in Detroit by artist and innovator Mary Chase Perry Stratton. In the early twentieth century, her experiments with glazes changed the face of contemporary ceramics.

Shouldn't you own this beautiful keepsake tile? Price: $100 (plus shipping).

Go to Gesuchool.udmercy.edu and click on the Pewabic Tile to order a tile.
